

Glitch Art Series - Rubric

1pt.	3 pts.	5 pts.
There artist turned in one solution that was missing elements.	There is evidence that all 2 Glitch art solutions have a background. The background does not fill the entire area. Two of images have an object that is featured/emphasized.	There is evidence that all 3 Glitch art solutions have a textured or composed background that fills the background space thoughtfully. There is an object that is featured/emphasized.
There were no channel adjustments.	There is evidence that 2 Glitch art solutions have a channel adjustment that creates and offset color effect. The channel adjustments are minor or do not look like the colors are moved much.	There is evidence that all 3 Glitch art solutions have a channel adjustment that creates and offset color effect.
The solutions had no filters.	The Glitch art solutions do not have a filter wave distortion, screen lines, or another filtered effect that create a Glitch effect.	There is evidence that all 3 Glitch art solutions have a filter wave distortion, screen lines, or another filtered effect that create a Glitch effect.
The solutions had no offset tracking error effects.	There is evidence that 2 Glitch art solutions have offset areas. The tracking error effect is weak or incorrectly applied.	There is evidence that all 3 Glitch art solutions have offset areas to create the effect of tracking errors. I.e. Parts of the image are not aligned.
There is evidence that the artist applied a little effort.	There is evidence that the artist applied Some of effort to create 2 solutions.	There is evidence that the artist applied A LOT of effort to create 3 solutions that were very thoughtful.